

PARKER UNIVERSITY
STANDARD PROCESS SCHOLARSHIP

Scholarships are a critical component of the support the Parker community offers to students and the future of chiropractic. Applications are reviewed and evaluated in various categories/ areas on a weighted average with a specific number of points awarded in each category. Failure to complete any portion of the application greatly reduces your chance of being awarded a scholarship. Examples of weighted categories are: academic achievement, financial need, community service, letters of recommendation, and essay requirement(s).

To be considered for a scholarship,

APPLICANTS MUST:

- Have a GPA of 2.5 or greater.
- Describe financial need.
- Complete application form and essay(s).
- Document community involvement/activities.
- Furnish 1 letter of recommendation from a school representative, clergy, and or community/civic leader.
