

PARKER UNIVERSITY

MASSAGE THERAPY CERTIFICATION

Parker University is a nonprofit, regionally accredited university that offers a Certificate in Massage Therapy (C-MT). The program prepares students to serve a wide variety of clients by using touch to manipulate the soft-tissue muscles of the body. Massage therapists are often multifaceted in their therapeutic techniques and able to help relieve pain, rehabilitate injuries, relieve stress, and jumpstart relaxation among clients.

PARKER'S MASSAGE THERAPY PROGRAM CONSISTS OF:

- ▶ Preparation for the Federation of State Massage Therapy Boards' MBLEx exam and Texas state licensure
- ▶ A total of 600 clock hours of hands-on training
 - 8 months/600-hour comprehensive program including advanced modalities: myofascial release, neuromuscular therapy and acupressure
 - 80 1-hour massages for clinical experience

PARKER'S CERTIFICATE IN MASSAGE THERAPY PROGRAM PREPARES ITS GRADUATES TO:

- ▶ Demonstrate therapeutic and relaxation modalities of massage therapy in order to provide appropriate client care;
- ▶ Identify the relationships between the structure and function of the human body;
- ▶ Articulate an understanding in removing musculoskeletal imbalance by various massage procedures;
- ▶ Exhibit proper professional and personal ethical guidelines which govern clinical practice for massage therapy;
- ▶ Develop business goals and objectives for a career in the health and wellness industry;
- ▶ Determine the ability to incorporate basic massage technique knowledge with clinical application to provide high-quality evidence-based care.
