PARKER UNIVERSITY'S MASTER OF SCIENCE IN INTERPROFESSIONAL SPINE MANAGEMENT DEGREE

Parker University's Interprofessional Spine Management program provides professional education targeting advanced topics in non-operative spine management and coordination of care. Specialty training includes an in-depth understanding of medical specialty procedures and advanced spinal diagnostics. It is through a better understanding of other spine care providers that graduates are prepared to work in an un-siloed care team.

WHY PARKER'S INTERPROFESSIONAL SPINE MANAGEMENT PROGRAM?

Consisting of an education integrating public health, neuroscience, and interprofessional communication skills, graduates can expect positions in academic medical institutions, hospital groups, and private practice. Graduates are well suited for roles in medical legal work and research projects.
